

Impact Instruction Group

Owner: Amy Franko

T: (614) 286-8265

info@impactinstruction.com

www.impactinstruction.com

Number of Years in Business: 5

Membership Organizations:

American Society of Training and Development (ASTD); Women for Economic and Leadership Development (WELD); University of Dayton Business Connect; TechColumbus

Certifications: Women's Business Enterprise National Council (WBENC)

Impact Instruction Group is a leading corporate learning and development firm that works with large enterprises on blended learning solutions and award-winning leadership development programs for emerging women leaders. Amy Franko is a nationally recognized speaker on the topic of women's leadership and one of a select few authorized by author Lois Frankel, Ph.D. to create and deliver programs specific to her best-selling books Nice Girls Don't Get the Corner Office and See Jane Lead.

Best Business Advice:

"As women, we owe it to ourselves and the world to dream and play big! You have everything within you to step beyond what's comfortable and into what's possible. Always remember that you're a role model for someone else, and you never know who you're inspiring — right this minute — to be more and do more."